Union Settlement is an on-the-ground resource for East Harlem residents of all ages, and a passionate advocate for the needs of underserved communities. Since opening our doors in 1895, we have brought education, wellness and community-building programs to our neighborhood, empowering New Yorkers with opportunities to better their lives.

From the Board Chair and Executive Director

Dear Friends of Union Settlement,

We are very pleased to present Union Settlement’s Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2020 (July 1, 2019 – June 30, 2020). This was supposed to be a celebratory year for Union Settlement, as we marked our 125th Anniversary of service here in East Harlem, but obviously the COVID-19 pandemic completely changed those plans.

Although our plans shifted, we remained committed to our mission of creating opportunities in East Harlem by offering comprehensive programs that help underserved residents improve their skills and build better lives for themselves and their families.

With the exception of our Meals on Wheels program, which continued to provide 500 meals per day to our seniors even in the height of the pandemic, all of our other programs had to quickly transform from in-person to remote modalities. In addition to programs going remote, the vast majority of our staff also began working remotely as they continued to provide programming to the 10,000 East Harlem residents who rely on us each year for essential services.

Through each phase of the pandemic Union Settlement adapted to best serve our participants. We phoned seniors to ensure they heard a friendly voice at least once a week, provided tablets for continued online learning for children and adults as well as telehealth for mental health clients, and provided essential food and supplies to address the devastating economic hardships brought on by the pandemic.

We are incredibly proud of our staff, participants, and supporters, who rose to the challenge during this unprecedented time. On the following pages you will see the resiliency and strength of our collective community. We could not do this work without you, and we are so grateful for your support.

Sincerely,

Chair, Board of Directors

Early Childhood Education

Union Settlement is the one of the largest providers of early childhood education services in New York City, serving almost 700 infants, toddlers and preschoolers each year. Our full-day year-round program focuses on developing cognitive, social, emotional, creative and motor skills so that the children are well prepared to be successful students when they enter kindergarten.

"I'm beyond happy with the remote learning experience, especially because it's so new and everyone is adapting. Union Settlement is making sure our children are receiving the education they need."

— Aisha, Early Childhood Education Parent

Did you know?

Nearly 450 East Harlem children, ages two to four, attended one of our six early childhood centers. Our ECE program provided tablets to students to support online learning when schools were forced to close in March.

Approximately 230 infants and toddlers attended one of 43 home-based child care centers through our pioneering Family Child Care Network, which trains qualified neighborhood residents to set up their own home-based early education centers. Many providers continued to provide care for children of essential workers during the pandemic.

In FY 2020, we enrolled 2,872 children in our childhood asthma prevention program, and provided asthma awareness training to 151 staff members and 204 parents at 50 centers.

Youth Services: In-School Programs

We provide robust afterschool and summer programs for youth, including education, arts and recreation for children from kindergarten through high school. Every year, through our programs, more than 2,250 eager and energetic children, teens and young adults actively seek and create opportunities to forge brighter futures.

"Union Settlement is a pathway, a guide for someone's success and achievement."

— Angela Yagual, Youth Services

Did you know?

Over 350 children, ages five to 12, were enrolled in our lively afterschool program at two East Harlem elementary schools and two community centers. This program features year-round activities, including tutoring, computer instruction, visual and performing arts, recreation and a summer day camp. When the COVID-19 pandemic forced the closure of public schools, we helped students and their families obtain devices and technology required for the public school remote learning programs.

Our Bridges middle school program, operating out of four school-based sites, served 450 students with academic, personal and cultural enrichment, as well as our year-round Middle School College Preparation Program, designed to help students in East Harlem's middle schools gain admission to competitive high schools.

Our College Readiness Program, which provides college and financial aid counseling to low-income students, the majority of whom are prospective first-generation college students, has been in existence for over 50 years and has helped over 20,000 students. This year, we provided services to 572 high school students.

Youth Services: Out-of-School Programs

Union Settlement serves approximately 650 older youth, mostly African American and Latino, who are neither attending school nor participating in the labor force. These young people face daunting challenges, including poverty, early parenthood, criminal justice system involvement, low educational levels and lack of employment opportunities. Our programs provide targeted services to these at-risk and court-involved youth to help them build successful futures.

"I'm learning so much about how to get a job including the importance of sending cover letters and thank you notes. I hope to get a job with Union Settlement when I complete the program."

— Carmen, Youth Services Participant

Did you know?

Our Youth Opportunity Hub program, which is funded by the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, is a cornerstone of our youth programs. The Hub worked with our network of partners to promote positive behavior and decrease criminal justice involvement among 308 at-risk children, adolescents and young adults. Throughout the pandemic participants continued to receive support remotely and were provided access to care packages of food and essential items.

Our rigorous programs make a difference among the high-risk, difficult-to-serve disconnected youth population through Reconnect and Rise, a robust program of educational, vocational and support services designed to help young men and women ages 16 to 24 who have left or been pushed out of school and are struggling in the job market. Services include high school equivalency classes, workshops, tutoring, and college and career exploration.

The Advocacy, Intervene, Mentor (AIM) program provided a minimum of 15 hours of one-on-one mentoring per week to youth who are on probation and referred by the NYC Department of Probation to reduce recidivism.

Adult Education

As one of the area's largest adult education providers, we are committed to helping our neighbors achieve their educational and career goals. Although East Harlem residents face many obstacles – 29% of adults did not graduate from high school and only 28% have a four-year college degree – we help them take the vital and necessary steps to create opportunities for themselves and their families.

"I had never taken English classes before. I started taking classes to learn English so I could help my children with their online classes."

— Angelina, Adult Education Client

Did you know?

We assisted almost 400 students with English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), Adult Basic Education (ABE), High School Equivalency (HSE), and Health Career Pathways classes. The pandemic shifted classes to a remote learning model. Students were provided with tablets for online learning and were also mailed homework packets including return postage to allow them to continue their studies and complete the program.

For nearly 30 years, we have collaborated with the prestigious 92nd Street Y on our Writing Through Reading program, which this year helped all of our students improve their reading and writing skills by reading contemporary literature, enjoying visits from renowned authors and producing their own creative writing.

Funding from the Pine Tree Foundation has allowed us to provide ABE/HSE instruction in Spanish. Spanish-language academic instruction will enable these individuals to significantly reduce the amount of time it will take them to earn high school diplomas, particularly since the TASC can be taken in Spanish. Last year we served 50 students in two Spanish ABE/HSE classes.

Senior Services

Senior programs have always been a priority for Union Settlement. We have been providing services for older East Harlem residents for over a century, and Meals on Wheels for over 40 years. Economically struggling and often living alone, our community's senior population relies on Union Settlement to help meet their everyday needs and ward off feelings of isolation.

"We're on the front lines and we're picking up more clients because of the pandemic. COVID-19 is not going to stop me from providing meals. Making their day makes my day."

— Terrence Greenberg Meals on Wheels Driver

Did you know?

Our Meals on Wheels program is one of the great success stories of Union Settlement's response to the pandemic. The program fills the most basic need for our most vulnerable population. We delivered over 500 meals daily to homebound seniors..

The Seniors United to Serve volunteer program, funded by a generous grant from the Fan Fox & Leslie R. Samuels Foundation, remains an important part of our seniors' lives. Until March 2020, approximately 95 senior volunteers worked an average of four hours a week conducting a wide array of social activities to keep the seniors involved and active.

There has been a significant increase in East Harlem's Chinese population over the last decade and support from the Isaac H. Tuttle Fund and the New York City Council has allowed us to provide culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to Chinese seniors. Since the pandemic, efforts have concentrated on connecting our Chinese speaking clients to essential services and a weekly support group through the WeChat app, to reduce social isolation.

Mental Health Services

East Harlem's rate of hospitalization due to mental illness is nearly three times the citywide rate. Poverty substantially increases the emotional burdens many of our residents shoulder, as do the high rates of violence, substance abuse, child abuse, trauma, mental illness and HIV/AIDS infection. Union Settlement's Mental Health Services program addresses these disparities by providing a range of counseling and care management services.

"Union Settlement changed my life in such a better and amazing way. I learned different ways to love myself."

— Yorgelis, Mental Health Client

Did you know?

Approximately 1,300 individuals utilized our Johnson Counseling Center last year, where we offered individual, family, group and couples therapy, crisis intervention, psychological and psychiatric evaluation, medication management, advocacy and many other services. Our therapists used creative approaches to ensure there was no disruption to services when we switched to providing services through telehealth due to the pandemic.

Our Mental Health Services program operated satellite clinics at three East Harlem public schools for individual, group and family therapy to approximately 90 students, along with their parents and teachers.

We provided mental-health-focused care management services to 135 children and adolescents who were emotionally and behaviorally challenged through our Children's Care Management program. We helped to ensure that these children received all needed mental health, educational, medical and social services to remain with their families and out of institutions.

Community and Small Business Development

Union Settlement's mission to empower the East Harlem community extends to nurturing and developing small businesses and entrepreneurs. We seek to connect businesses with each other, as well as help incubate local businesses of all sizes, thereby keeping employers and employees in our neighborhood.

"The support from Union Settlement was tremendously important to our business. Without the assistance, I don't know how the last few months would have gone."

— Daniel Cohen, Super Nice Coffee & Bakery

Did you know?

At the height of the pandemic, and thanks to a grant from L+M Development and Jonathan Rose Companies, our Small Business Development team enlisted 24 local East Harlem restaurants to prepare meals for 5,700 of Metropolitan Hospital's healthcare heroes.

We provided 29 "mom and pop" businesses with 12 workshops on Digital Marketing and Social Media Marketing via Zoom, which were conducted in both English and Spanish. We also conducted a virtual Cash Mob for a local business, which netted a profit of over $1,900.

The English/Spanish bilingual staff of our Business Development Center provided technical assistance to 247 entrepreneurs and small business owners.

Outreach and Community Engagement

In January 2020 we launched our Outreach and Community Engagement program, which has enabled us to centralize and systematize outreach efforts across our agency and throughout our community. Our Outreach and Community Engagement initiative allows us to reach more local residents and connect them more efficiently with needed services.

"We came together as a family in such a quick way to help our community."

— Ingrid Sotelo, Director, Community Outreach

Did you know?

During the pandemic we created the "Union Settlement General Store," which offered free essential items to program participants, including non-perishable and perishable foods and basic toiletries, which we purchased in bulk. The General Store operated twice a week, providing 165 to 185 individuals with food and personal items weekly.

We served 415 community members during FY20, enrolling 115 into one of our programs. This has been a major step despite the need to shift strategies during the global pandemic.

Union Settlement served as the East Harlem hub for 2020 Census information, outreach and training.

Union Settlement’s 125th Anniversary Endowment Campaign

Since 1895, Union Settlement has been a part of the fabric of East Harlem, offering a wide variety of vital services to people of all ages. We touch the lives of more than 10,000 people each year, enriching minds, improving health, and building a more connected community.

In late 2018, Union Settlement embarked on a campaign to raise $5 million for its endowment. The endowment will ensure that Union Settlement has the resources needed to continue to provide vital education, wellness and community-building programs to the thousands of East Harlem residents who need them.

With this campaign, we are preparing for another 125 outstanding years of empowering East Harlem and inspiring its residents from all walks of life.

We are immensely grateful to the following individuals and foundations who have already made pledges or gifts to the 125th Anniversary Endowment Campaign.

If you would like to learn more or join the Campaign for Union Settlement, please contact Kristine Cooper, Director of Development and Communications at 212-828-6024 or kcooper@unionsettlement.org.
